

Congressional Record

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 98^{th} congress, second session

Vol. 130

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7, 1984

No. 26

Senate

emption from disclosure for informa- way or has taken place. tion related to terrorism and foreign The bill also addresses the problem FOIA requester.

bers of terrorist groups, and others mosaic. have used the FOIA to identify FBI informants and frustrate FBI investi-amounts to giving help to terrorists gations.

vealed that, for that year alone, he was never intended to be used for that knew of 125 cases where individuals re-purpose. I ask for the support of my fused to provide the FBI with infor-colleagues in amending those provimation because of fears that their sions. names would be released under an FOIA request.

more effectively deal with terrorists S. 2395, a bill to amend the Freedom and foreign intelligence operatives, of Information Act to provide for the who are increasingly sophisticated in protection from disclosure of records their intelligence-gathering methods related to terrorism and foreign counand who rejoice at the ease with terintelligence, be printed in the which they are able to obtain sensitive RECORD. information in our open, democratic society, we need to close some loop-the bill was ordered to be printed in holes in the law that allow them the RECORD, as follows: access to information that they should not have. Additionally, such requests have a chilling effect on informants informants have become hesitant States Code, is amendedabout cooperating with our law enforcement agencies.

other amendments to the FOIA, I ad- paragraph (9) and inserting in lieu thereof a Last year, when we were considering vised my colleagues on the Judiciary semicolon; Committee that the Senate and House lowing new paragraph: would need to act very soon to protect for foreign counterintelligence pur-ligence operations."; and

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT AMENDMENTS an FOIA request amounts to acknowl-• Mr. DENTON. Mr. President, today edgement by the FBI that a file exists I introduce legislation to amend and on a specific subject. As a result, hosimprove the Freedom of Information tile intelligence services are put on Act (FOIA) by providing a specific ex- notice that an investigation is under-counterintelligence. The legislation of segregability. As the law stands also deletes a current provision of 5 now, records requested under the U.S.C. 552 that requires the release of FOIA must be reviewed line by line to segregable portions of a record to an determine releasability. That type of review frequently requires the release On December 10, 1981, FBI Director of often seemingly innocuous informa-William Webster testified before the tion within a document, which, when Subcommittee on the Constitution of pieced together with other informathe Senate Judiciary Committee. He tion, could conceivably be the piece of described, in detail, cases in which hos-information a hostile intelligencetile foreign intelligence services, mem-gathering team needs to complete its

The time has come to stop what and hostile foreign intelligence serv-As early as 1979, Judge Webster re-ices through provisions in a law that

Mr. DENTON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of I firmly believe that, in order to the bill which I introduced yesterday,

There being no objection, the text of

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of who fear exposure through informa- America in Congress assembled, That subtion released under the FOIA. Those section (b) of section 552 of title 5, United

(1) by striking out "or" at the end of paragraph (8);

(2) by striking out the period at the end of

(3) by adding after paragraph (9) the fol-

"(10) related to the investigation of terrorhighly sensitive information gathered ism or concerned with foreign counterintelposes. In some cases, the response to (4) by striking out the second sentence thereof.